FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bank of Guam[®] to “Light It Up Blue” for Autism Month Hagatna Headquarters Building Goes Blue for April

March 31, 2017, Hagatna, Guam. In commemoration of Autism Month, Bank of Guam has joined the national awareness program “Light It Up Blue” by lighting its building in blue for the month of April.

A United Nations-sanctioned program, “World Autism Day” is Sunday, April 2, while the month of April is set aside to increase understanding and acceptance of people living with Autism.

The Bank of Guam also announces the local Guam Autism Community Togetherness display in the lobby of its Hagatna headquarters branch from April 3-7. The display is entitled “Photo Voice Exhibit: Caregivers of Autism.”

In support of Autism Month, Bank employees will wear blue on Wednesday, April 5, 2017.

Finally, the Bank of Guam is a sponsor for the HunterSpeaks 5K Run on Saturday, April 15, 6AM go time at the Chamorro village.

For additional information, please contact Jackie Marati at (671) 688-5305.
