FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bank of Guam® Leads National Financial Literacy Month Events 16th Annual Teach Children to Save Day April 27, 2017

April 10, 2017, Hagatna, Guam. As part of its continuing commitment to financial literacy, Bank of Guam commemorates National Financial Literacy month in April with a variety of outreach programs.

In the last 6 months, Bank of Guam has been piloting a financial literacy simulation program for high school students, reaching over 300 students in 6 schools, as well as youth programs such as the Guam DECA, Chamber of Commerce Life Skills, and Youth for Youth. Additional outreach programs will be held in April for Tiyan High and other high schools.

On April 27, 2017, the 16th Guam Annual National Teach Children to Save Day, Bank of Guam leads local volunteers in visiting Guam's elementary schools, utilizing an American Bankers Association approved curriculum which is age-appropriate. Other banks and financial institutions will be joining this one day outreach in the community. For interested teachers or parents, please contact Chelsey Ting at (671) 472-5179.

For additional information, please contact Jackie Marati at (671) 688-5305.
