

Bank of Guam donates $100K to Guam Community College

Bank of Guam donated $100,000 to Guam Community College. From left, Christine Quichocho, Bank of Guam regional vice president; Lolita Reyes, GCC assistant director, Development & Alumni Relations; Josephine Mariano, Bank of Guam senior vice president; Mary Okada, GCC president; Jennifer Sanchez, BOG vice president. / Courtesy of Bank of Guam

Bank of Guam donated $100,000 to Guam Community College. Officials met on Monday and the check was presented at the main Bank of Guam offices in Hagåtña.

GCC President Mary Okada, and GCC Assistant Director of Development and Alumni Relations were on hand to receive the check, according to a press release.

This is the fourth consecutive year that the Bank of Guam has supported GCC with a $100,000 donation, the release stated. The money is being used to support the nursing and science programs in the Anthony A. Leon Guerrero Allied Health Center at GCC, according to GCC.