PART III — NARRATIVE

BankGuam Holding Company (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2017 by the prescribed filing deadline (April 2, 2018) without unreasonable effort and expense, as explained below.

In connection with the preparation of the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company and its independent financial auditor, Crowe Horwath LLC, have been unable to agree regarding the adequacy of the Company's allowance for loan and lease losses ("ALLL"), and the Company is in the process of evaluating its ALLL to determine whether adjustments or further disclosure surrounding these matters is appropriate.

As a result of the time needed by the Company to evaluate the impact of the foregoing on its financial statements and to assess the Company's internal control over financial reporting, and for the Company's auditors to evaluate the implications of the adjustments on current financial statements, if any, and the Company's internal control over financial reporting, the Company requires additional time to complete and file its Form 10-K.

The Company has not yet determined whether any changes constitute a material impact on its financial statements, or whether the Form 10-K will reflect a conclusion by management that there was a material weakness in the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2017.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. These include, among other things, statements regarding the Company's future operations, financial condition and prospects, and business strategies. Forward-looking statements may be preceded by, followed by or include the words "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," "will," "is designed to" and similar expressions. The Company based these forward-looking statements on its expectations and projections about future events at the time when they were made. The Company cautions investors not to place undue reliance on these statements because they involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, some of which are beyond the control of the Company. These risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from the anticipated future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed in "Risk Factors" in filings we make from time to time with the SEC, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. The Company undertakes no duty, and specifically disclaims any duty, to update or revise any forward-looking statements in this press release, except as required by applicable law.
