FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yolanda Padrones Bank of Guam's Newest VP

March 25, 2014, Hagatna, Guam. The Board of Directors, Management and Staff of Bank of Guam are pleased to announce that Yolanda M. Padrones has been promoted to Vice President/Human Resources and Training and Development Manager.

A 22-year employee with the Bank, Padrones is a graduate of Notre Dame High School and the University of Guam, where she graduated cum laude with a degree in Business Administration.

Padrones holds a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) Certification, granted by the Human Resources Certification Institute.

Since joining the Bank in 1992, Padrones has served in a wide variety of roles, beginning as a Customer Service Representative. She was promoted to Customer Service Manager and has also served as a Secretary and Executive Secretary. In 2010, Padrones transferred to the Human Resources Department, where she served as the Training and Development Officer and then Training and Development Manager. She was promoted to Human Resources and Training and Development Manager in March 2013.
